

SPEAKING · PART 2

Practise one card daily with a 1-minute plan and a 2-minute answer. Record yourself, then listen for filler words and broken tenses.

The 60-second planning frame

- 0-20s: choose the story and the three prompts — write one-word notes only.
- 20-40s: plan the PAST-PRESENT-FUTURE arc: how it began, what happened, what it means now.
- 40-60s: fix your opening sentence and one 'advanced' phrase you will definitely use.

Speak the full two minutes. Examiners stop you at 2:00 — finishing early costs fluency marks. If you run out of ideas, describe the place, people, sounds, colours and your feelings in detail; sensory language is impossible to run out of.

Part 3 — extending your answers

- Opinion + reason: 'I'd argue that ... primarily because ...'
- General + specific: 'In most Bangladeshi families ... , though in my own experience ...'
- Compare past/present: 'Twenty years ago people used to ..., whereas nowadays ...'
- Hypothetical: 'If everyone had access to ..., I imagine ...'
- Concede then counter: 'Admittedly ... , but on balance ...'

Fluency drill: answer the same card three times. Round 1 reads notes, round 2 hides them, round 3 adds one idiom and one complex sentence. Comparing the recordings shows exactly which words collapse under pressure — fix those first.
