

Four ready-to-adapt essay skeletons with band 7+ sentence frames. Practise one structure per day and reuse the frames until they feel natural.

How to use this bank

Do not memorise whole essays — examiners notice template paragraphs instantly and reward only language that fits the exact question. Instead, learn the skeleton of each essay type, then substitute the frame sentences with your own ideas. Every structure below follows the same 4-paragraph, 250-290 word plan: introduction, two body paragraphs, and a conclusion that answers the question directly.

Structure 1 — Opinion Essay (agree / disagree)

Paragraph	Job of the paragraph	Sentence frames you can adapt
Introduction	Paraphrase the topic + clear position	[Paragraph('caseSensitive': 1 'encoding': 'utf8' 'text': 'It is often argued that ... I completely agree/disagree with this view because ...' 'frags': [ParaFrag(__tag__='para', bold=0, fontName='Helvetica', fontSize=9, greek=0, italic=0, link=[], rise=0, text='It is often argued that ... Conclusion	Restate position — no new ideas	[Paragraph('caseSensitive': 1 'encoding': 'utf8' 'text': 'In conclusion, although ..., I firmly believe that ...' 'frags': [ParaFrag(__tag__='para', bold=0, fontName='Helvetica', fontSize=9, greek=0, italic=0, link=[], rise=0, text='In conclusion, although ..., I firmly believe that ...', textColor=Color(.14902,.133333,.105882,1), us_lines=[])] 'style': 'bulletText': None 'debug': 0) #Paragraph]

Structure 2 — Discussion Essay (discuss both views)

Paragraph	Job of the paragraph	Sentence frames you can adapt
Introduction	Paraphrase + say both views will be examined + your lean	[Paragraph('caseSensitive': 1 'encoding': 'utf8' 'text': 'Opinions differ about whether ... This essay discusses both perspectives before arguing that ...' 'frags': [ParaFrag(__tag__='para', bold=0, fontName='Helvetica', fontSize=9, greek=0, italic=0, link=[], rise=0, text='Opinions differ about whether ... Body 1	View A — strongest arguments, fair presentation	[Paragraph('caseSensitive': 1 'encoding': 'utf8' 'text': 'Supporters of ... point out that ... They argue, quite reasonably, that ...' 'frags': [ParaFrag(__tag__='para', bold=0, fontName='Helvetica', fontSize=9, greek=0, italic=0, link=[], rise=0, text='Supporters of ... point out that ... They argue, quite reasonably, that ...', textColor=Color(.14902,.133333,.105882,1), us_lines=[])] 'style': 'bulletText': None 'debug': 0) #Paragraph, Paragraph('caseSensitive': 1 'encoding': 'utf8' 'text': 'A frequently cited benefit is that ...' 'frags': [ParaFrag(__tag__='para', bold=0, fontName='Helvetica', fontSize=9, greek=0, italic=0, link=[], rise=0, text='A frequently cited benefit is that ...', textColor=Color(.14902,.133333,.105882,1), us_lines=[])] 'style': 'bulletText': None 'debug': 0) #Paragraph]

Paragraph	Job of the paragraph	Sentence frames you can adapt
Body 2	View B — then signal why it is stronger	[Paragraph('caseSensitive': 1 'encoding': 'utf8' 'text': 'On the other hand, critics contend that ... What this view misses, however, is ...' 'frags': [ParaFrag(__tag__='para', bold=0, fontName='Helvetica', fontSize=9, greek=0, italic=0, link=[], rise=0, text='On the other hand, critics contend that ... What this view misses, however, is ...', textColor=Color(.14902,.133333,.105882,1), us_lines=[])] 'style': 'bulletText': None 'debug': 0) #Paragraph]
Conclusion	Weigh both, state your final position	[Paragraph('caseSensitive': 1 'encoding': 'utf8' 'text': 'In my judgement, while ... undoubtedly brings ..., the advantages of ... are more significant.' 'frags': [ParaFrag(__tag__='para', bold=0, fontName='Helvetica', fontSize=9, greek=0, italic=0, link=[], rise=0, text='In my judgement, while ... undoubtedly brings ..., the advantages of ... are more significant.', textColor=Color(.14902,.133333,.105882,1), us_lines=[])] 'style': 'bulletText': None 'debug': 0) #Paragraph]

Structure 3 — Advantage / Disadvantage Essay

- Introduction: paraphrase the trend; state that it brings both benefits and drawbacks; hint which outweigh.
- Body 1 (advantages): 'The most significant benefit of ... is that ...' → explain → 'A secondary advantage worth mentioning is ...'.
- Body 2 (disadvantages): 'Nevertheless, this development carries considerable risks, particularly ...' → explain with a real-world case.
- Conclusion: 'On balance, the benefits ... outweigh the drawbacks, provided that ...' — a conditional ending reads band 8.

Structure 4 — Problem / Solution Essay

- Introduction: paraphrase the problem statement; announce that causes and remedies will be discussed.
- Body 1 (problems/causes): 'The root cause of this issue lies in ...' + 'Compounding the problem, ...'.
- Body 2 (solutions): 'A practical first step would be to ...' + 'This, however, requires ... from both the government and individuals.'
- Conclusion: one sentence — 'Unless measures such as ... are taken, the situation is likely to worsen.'

Examiner's checklist — run before you submit

Check	Band 7 requirement
Answer	Every part of the question is addressed; position is clear from the introduction and never contradicted.
Ideas	Each body paragraph develops ONE central idea — explanation + specific example, no idea-listing.
Cohesion	Paragraphs open with a clear topic sentence; referencing (this, such, these) replaces repeated nouns.
Vocabulary	Precise topic words and collocations; occasional idiomatic phrase; spelling error-free.
Grammar	Mix of complex structures used naturally — conditionals, concessive clauses, relative clauses.

Check	Band 7 requirement
Word count	250-290 words. Under 250 caps Task Achievement at Band 6; over 320 invites more errors.

Self-marking habit: after every practice essay, underline your topic sentences, count words per paragraph (aim 60-80 each), and highlight every 'this/such' reference. If a paragraph has no example, it is not developed — rewrite it before checking vocabulary.
